

NORTHERN VIRGINIA HIGH THREAT RESPONSE PROGRAM

Until Help Arrives Train-the-Trainer Course

Objective: The Northern Virginia High Threat Response Program will be offering a Until Help Arrives Train-the-Trainer Course to regional partners who wish to become certified to provide this training to their communities.

When: Wednesday, December 4, 2019 (9am to 5pm)
Thursday, December 12, 2019 (9am to 1pm)

Participants must be able to attend BOTH sessions

Where: Sherwood Center Community Center – 3740 Old Lee Hwy, Fairfax VA 22030

DESCRIPTION

The Until Help Arrives program was developed with the goal of building a continuum of care, including community efforts to be the help, until help arrives.

PART ONE: CURRICULUM (Wednesday, December 4)

The training will be held in two parts. The first part will teach participants the Until Help Arrives training including introduction, respond, rescue, report, and survey sections. The bulk of the training is on the rescue portion. The entire training will last 8 hours.

PREREQUISITE

Attendees must complete a 45-minute training as a prerequisite. It is designed to introduce students to the top four preventable medical treatments of tactical emergency casualty care that will be built upon in the additional hands-on training.

PART TWO: TEACH BACK (Thursday, December 12)

The second part will require students to teach the Until Help Arrives training back to the trainers to ensure they understood key concepts and can communicate those concepts to non-public safety personnel. This session will last 4 hours.

If you are interested in participating, please register here. The class is capped at 80 students, spots are offered on a first come, first served basis. Additional information will be distributed as the training nears. If you have any questions, please contact Daneen Matheson.
